Seeing the Rainbow

This new and engaging document presents to Canadian educators some of the social and political contexts in which bisexual, gay, lesbian, transgender and two-spirited issues in education have been, are being, and need to be addressed.

The first section of the document provides detailed INFORMATION, including how individual teachers and school communities can address homophobia and heterosexism and make schools safer places for all students, staff, and parents. This section also contains lesson plans and activities for students and staff.

Powerful STORIES from Canadian educators, representing diverse geographic regions of the country, make up the second section of the document. The stories offer insight and encouragement.

The third and final section, RESOURCES, contains comprehensive lists of teacher resources, organizations addressing BGLTT issues, as well as books and videos for students and teachers.
